

Antique Oak

Exceptional color and character easily distinguishes this flooring from new oak. A mixture of antique red and white oak with unique knots, character marks, checks and random nail holes.

Resawn oak timbers salvaged from barns and buildings from the Midwest to the Mid-Atlantic. The flooring manufactured from these old growth timbers exhibits exceptional color and character, which easily distinguishes this flooring from new oak. We mix our red and white oak to great effect.

Grade Specifications:

- Species: A mixture of red and white oak lumber
- Knots: Random in size and frequency
- Holes: Random nail holes
- Grain: Bold
- Dimensions:
  - Thickness: ¾-inch
  - Random Lengths: 1 ½ - 15 feet
  - Available Widths: 3" – 10"
- Color: variable tan, brown & reddish color
- Texture: Smooth

